Several teal, shiny Christmas ornaments are arranged around the central text, each with a small teal ribbon bow at the top. # Your Best Christmas Yet!

You know the song, All I Want For Christmas but what you want is someone to do it all for you. Remember when you would admiringly watched all the christmas proceedings happening around you. Mum and Dad decorating the house and the tree, shopping for delicious food, wrapping the presents and the pièce de résistance, Christmas Dinner. What happened? You grew up. Now all of the nostalgia is your reality. You run around like a lunatic, trying to make everything perfect for the day, the day arrives and you spend most of it in the kitchen either cooking, serving up or washing up! Urgh.

It's time to GSI™, my favourite thing (Get Someone In™)

This year you can make it different. You can tick of the endless Christmas task list in one ✓

The spruce-up

The Winter Deep Clean, needed to prepare for the big day. We send in a team to clean and organise the cupboards, put things back where they belong, polish the skirting boards and get everything shipshape in no time.

Decking the hall

The Christmas decorations provide wonderful memories for some but I have known people come to blows over the Christmas tree and decorations. A Christmas dressing service will transform your home into a winter wonderland, you won't recognise the place. Imagine your home full of candles and twinkly tea-lights, huge vases filled with super-size fir cones and Christmas potpourri. A marvellous wreath above the mantelpiece, holly garlands galore and a stunning arrangement of highly scented white roses around a pillar candle. Plus a hand-picked tree of your choice decorated to your choice. They'll test the lights and you switch them on and put the angel on top.

It's a wrap

The gift wrapping, you either love it or hate it. Some can create a masterpiece with a piece of Cellophane and plain ribbon and some can't. A gift wrapping service will save you hours. You choose a colour scheme, we collect the gifts, then return them beautifully wrapped to put under your gorgeous tree. Alternatively we can get them delivered to the lucky recipient.

The big Christmas food shop

I don't know about you but I dread the big Christmas food shop. What you need is for someone to bring you everything from Brussel sprouts to cranberry sauce, a cooked ham, delicious homemade mince-pies, Christmas cakes, puddings, champagne, wine, soft drinks, oh and the Turkey. Enough said!

Dining room transformation

Have the barest room transformed into somewhere really special. Imagine beautifully pressed tablecloths and napkins, chairs proudly sporting covers with sashes, all the plates, cutlery, glasses, candles and table adornments that you could wish for. In few hours your dining room will have had a makeover,

No laundry after either, it will be collected and become a distant memory

Personal chef for the important meal of the year
Have your chef arrive Christmas Eve to prep, then return the following day to cook your banquet, without lifting a finger. (other than to raise a glass) AND they'll do the all important washing-up after.

Quick Christmas Fixes

Maybe you just need a quick Christmas fix. That one thing from the Christmas to-do list that you can't bring yourself to do. Take your pick

Quick Cards

The dreaded Christmas Card writing. Write the list, buy the cards, write the cards then post them, along with the other festive chores. This year you could just write the list and had the rest over to someone else. I will have someone not only create a bespoke card if you wish but they will also write and address them too AND post them. You're too busy to do it yourself but still want a personal touch and to actually get them done in time. Well here is the solution. Oh and they can also write thank you letters too. It will save you hours. All you have to do is tell me where you want the cards to go and I will arrange the rest.

The Food Shop

I don't know about you but I dread the big Christmas food shop. You can avoid the shops and hustle and bustle by shopping online but even that isn't straight forward. Who wants standard supermarket produce on Christmas Day? What you need is for someone to bring you everything from Brussels sprouts to cranberry sauce, a cooked ham, delicious homemade mince-pies, Christmas cakes, puddings, champagne, wine, soft drinks, oh and the Turkey. Good quality food from ethical suppliers. You could of course go to all the different places and source it yourself....Enough said!

Be VIP for 2016

For a select few The Agent can make your entire year like Christmas. You've worked hard to build your empire and now it's time to enjoy it and live your life as an adventure.

It's time to live your dreams, tick off that bucket list and have your lifestyle managed. I'm here to make sure that you have anything you want. An impromptu trip to Monaco, to play with other VIP's? Hire a private jet as a gift? Your filet Mignon cooked to perfection by a world-renowned chef? Consider it done.

Whether you need personalized attention tailored to your lifestyle for one month or an entire year, I can make it happen.

It's like having a personal 007, but instead of being a trained killer I wear killer heels and tote a mental rolodex bigger and more powerful than Elizabeth Taylor's and Zsa Zsa Gabor's combined list of ex-husbands. It's not who you know, it's who I know. How much time do you have to research the right connections, surf the web, make the right calls, prepare a pitch and face rejections, over and over again. There isn't much I can't do or find. As long as it doesn't involve your dirty laundry or a late night McDonald's run, then it's handled!

The next step toward fulfillment of your dreams is just a click away
